The police said he admitted serving a four year sentence in Sing Sing for grand larceny. He declared that he really knew nothing about the jewels but thought he could convince Miss Bobe's secretary that he did. The

The police increased their efforts to capture the robbers when they were informed that two weeks ago four persons, all socially prominent, were waylaid in the hallway of an apartment house in Fifth avenue and robbed of $10,000 worth of jewelry.

Secrecy surrounded the identity of the victims, but it was learned that Seymour D. Ehrich, son of Samuel Ehrich, a reputed millionaire was a member of the party. He was a host to a man and two women at a downtown restaurant. The robbery occurred in the hall of the apartment house where Mr. Ehrich lived with his

> The following story of the incident in Birmingham was published in late editions of The Birmingham News yesterday.

Willie George Horne, 22, timekeep er for the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company, in Ensley arrested Tuesday morning for an alleged attempt to coerce a teacher in the South Highlands school to marry him was transferred to the county jail owing a hearing before Police Judge Henry J. Martin on a warrant sworn out by the young woman's brother.

The transfer took place shortly after Judge Martin, hearing fragmentary evidence against Horne, passed the case until 9 o'clock, Sept. 24. The warrant is in peace proceedings, and Horne was held in the county jail in failure to provide $3,000 bond. The peace action against Horne will be tried later in the week before Judge H. B. Abernathy in the court of misdemeanors, after which a fixed peace bond will probably be determined.

The hearing before Judge Martin was brief and ended abruptly. Miss Bernice McClure, 1604 North Twenty-Fifth street, the teacher, was not present, and neither were other witnesses who were present Tuesday morning when Horne seized Miss Mc-Clure and attempted to force her to accompany him.

Judge Martin scored the prosecution for failure to provide the necessary witnesses, and announced at first that he felt prone to withhold his judgment of Horne until after a lunacy commission had examined him. However, later on urgent request of speak at noon on that day in Fred- defense counsel, the case was post-

Bailes said that he was a friend of both and that with the court's permission, he would prefer that Horne be given a long suspended sentence, with the promise that he would annoy the school teacher no more.

Judge Martin insisted that the facts be presented and called for any additional prosecution witnesses. None as offered. Turning to the defense, he asked Bailes if Horne would take the stand. Horne mumbled something and stepped to the bar. The youth, speaking in an almost unintelligible tone, mumbled again that he would willingly tell 'all he knew," provided the father and brother of the girl would likewise take the stand and admit their alleged eforts to preven Miss McClure seeing him. Horne was promptly stopped by Bailes. Threatens Sanity Hearing Judge Martin then announced that ne would withhold judgment and would order Horne to be given a san-

Bailes vigorously pleaded with the court not to carry out such an intention, saying that Horne heretofore had enjoyed a good reputation in Birmingham, that he held a responsible position and that if such a step was taken it would probably do Horne an irreparable and lasting injury.

Judge Martin then announced that a deputy had presented a warrant in peace proceedings and that he would surrender the prisoner to county authorities. The court declared that the original plan to give Horne a sanity examination would be held in abeyance until next Wednesday, when the case would be completed. Horne was then taken in charge by Deputy

City Farm

Approximately one hundred and seventeen acres of the best land in this section.

All but about fifteen acres of this land is high and dry and would be the best land for a subdivision anywhere near the city, it is within less than 1-3 mile of the corporation line of Albany and for farming land can not be surpassed, for a subdivision it has no equal. There is big money for someone who has money to invest and the only reason we offer it for sale is the fact that we need the money.

We can probably arrange terms To Suit Reliable Purchaser. This land is in almost a square body with a dedicated street all round it. See us in person as it will not be in the hands of any real estate dealer.

All the physical suffering which nay be caused by nervous irritability, eadaches, backaches, indigestion, neart palpitation, etc., as a result of ompared with its awful effects upon he mind and "will power."

The most pitiful sight in life is a nan or woman who has "no will"who has noble impulses and desires out not enough "will power" to carry hem through. The memory also fails, he judgment is bad and everything herefore seems to go wrong.

In such cases, do not take mere lrugs (which only further injure your delicate nervous system), but what ou need is something to put more herve force into your nerves and more ron into your plood to help make new nerve force with which to feed your starving nerve cells. This is most effectively accomplished by the free use of Nuxated Iron. This valtable product contains the principal hemical constituent of active living cells of man. It also contains strength giving organic iron for the blood and may therefore be said to be both a blood and a nerve food. Millions of people are using it. "What a shame" commented my companion, "how can beings who claim themselves direct descendants of the human family be so willfully cruel a to disregard these Red Crosses, the ymbol of suffering humanity, se fouly, so completely?"

They know not, neither do they care what wretched unfortunate lies with in those walls wrestling with pair and perhaps death.

"No," I answered in a blameles rt of way. "They are free fron sickness and pain and therefore morapt to be reckless and have no though or regard for the suffering ones nothing short of an accident or a rea case of sickness will cause them to hesitate with respect unless it be,' and here I was suddenly possessed with an idea. That future road con ctors put a permanent wave, ye: ens of them, through the quie come of the hospital district and force ravelers to respect the Red Cross and other symbols of the sick. I was at this instant I thought of the dangerous railroad crossings and J friend to the reckless if applied after I saw Dr. Pettey's article exoiting, in a honorable way of course, my idea. ANNIE LAURIE

Dear Annie Laurie. -

I am a girl in my teens, I am in love with a man two years my senior. We were once engaged, we quarrelled, I broke the engagement and he went away. While away he began going with another girl. I think he cares for. Before he left he told me he loved me and would love me forever. I read a letter for this girl to him and from the tone of the letter they are engaged. He returned three months age and called upon me three times and old me that he loved me.

Do you think I have given him too much attention. I did not go with anther young man the three years that we were going together. Do you think he is telling me the truth? What would you advise me to do to see if ie loves me and if he does not how an I win his affections?

Wondering

Your love affair is indeed very ineresting, still I can see no real reaon why you should even consider he young man in any seriousness. The only proof that you can have of he man's love is for him to ask ou to marry him and until that time would not give up my other friends or him. If he loves you he will ask ou to marry him and in the meanme I advise you to make yoursely s charming and attractive as you in so that he may be able to see learly your real worth. Do not invite he young man to your home, he will ome of his own volition if he cares

Black Diamond cast range has for many years enjoyed an enviable record for satisfactory service and long life. The Black Diamond is made of cast iron of modern smooth finish, being free from all corrugations or superfluous ornamentation, it is very easy to keep clean and free of grease dust, etc. If you are interested in a small neat range, this is the one we recommend to you. If you wish a larger range we wish to call your attention to the Home Enterprise Range, high-grade cast iron. The Home Enterprise is larger in all dimensions and much heavier. We call special attention to the fire box in the Enterprise—this fire box is sectional, ventilated by means of vertical slots and a current of air through and around these linings is assured at all times, leaving next to impossible for these linings to become warped or to melt from the heat or direct contact with the fire. Whether coal or wood be used the very deep wood extension permits the use of wood up to 25 inches in length. Come in and let us demonstrate this range to you.
